Introduction

LLM or Master in Laws is chosen by a Law Student for specialization in one or more specific area of Law like Criminal Law, Civil Law, Cyber Law, Constitutional Law, Human Rights etc. A Student can only enrol for Master in Laws or LLM after he/she has completed a 3 year or 5 year integrated Bachelor in Laws.

The Students can choose either studying LLM from India in Colleges like Campus Law Centre and GLC, Mumbai etc. or go abroad for the lights of Harvard Law School – USA, Faculty of Law-Cambridge University etc.

The admissions for LLM are based upon either Entrance Exams or Marks/percentage secured in the LLB.
