Guide to Study Law
after Graduation.

Introduction

Choosing Law after graduation or 3 year LL.B is the path that one can choose if he/she wasn't able to choose Law as an option after school. After a 3 year LL.B or Bachelor of Laws one can get into various fields like Litigation, Judiciary and even Corporate Law.

The Student can enter into a Law College for a 3 year LL.B either by appearing for an entrance examination like DULLB Entrance Exam, BHU UET, PULLB Entrance Test, LAT etc. or get direct admission based upon his/her percentage or marks in the qualifying degree.

The Top Law Colleges for LL.B in India include Campus Law Centre-Delhi University, GLC-Mumbai, Faculty of Law-BHU, Faculty of Law-Allahabad University, Faculty of Law-Panjab University and Faculty of Law-Osmania University etc.
